Accademia Lingua Italiana Assisi

It is one of the most famous Italian language schools in the world. Founded in 1993 by the linguist Angelo Chiuchiù (author of the grammar book In Italiano, and the Arte e Metodo series). Each year the school welcomes students, professionals, men of culture and artists from around the world. The Accademia is located in the historic center of Assisi, considered by UNESCO World Heritage site. Assisi is famous not only for the architectural and artistic patrimony, but also because it is the land of Saint Francis. The Accademia is recognized by the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research.

Standard course of Italian language (40 hours), after which it is issued a certificate of attendance and evaluation. The Academy teachers have a university background and years of experience.
